

THE CONSTRUCTION CORNER

THE OFFICIAL NEWSLETTER FOR PVN CONSTRUCTION

January 22, 2021

Vol.10

THE NEW BEAUTY SALON IS OPEN AND READY FOR BUSINESS

The salon is officially open and ready for resident use. Its new location is 9931 Gazebo Circle.

The PVN team was able to convert the patio home into a functional salon to provide hairdressing services.

"We're really excited that the residents can still go to the salon during the renovation," said Lisa Englander, director of residential services. "It's a service they truly enjoy."

To schedule an appointment, call 214-355-9091. To request transportation to the salon, call the receptionist desk.

CORRIGAN CLOSURE UPDATES:

- Beginning Monday, Jan. 25, please enter through Martin's Landing entrance facing the parking lot to use AveoMedical Clinic or the Lifestyle Fitness Center.
- Use the doors between The Monie Chapel and the Corrigan front entrance to enter the auditorium.

#QTNA

QUESTION THAT NEEDS AN ANSWER

BY JARRED RICHARDSON

Q Is there a way to alleviate the amount of contractors parking in the neighborhood?

A The construction team is currently preparing the field on the east side of the campus to use as a temporary storage area and parking lot.

WHAT TO EXPECT WHILE THEY'RE CONSTRUCTING

A Guide to Construction at PVN

JANUARY 25 - 29

- Contractors continue to pour concrete for the Hawthorne garage walls.
- The crafting of the Hawthorne garage columns will continue.
- Contractors will organize the drainage system for the Hawthorne garage.
- Electrical work will begin in the Hawthorne garage.
- Contractors will set up steel columns for the gatehouse this week.
- Beams will begin to be drilled in the Corrigan dining room.
- The demolition of Classroom 1 will commence this week. Please avoid this area and its adjacent walking path. They will be closed for the remainder of the Corrigan renovation.
- Some areas in the Corrigan are now closed. To view a map of which areas are closed and when to expect others to close, click here.

All timelines are subject to change due to weather or other unforeseen circumstances.*