

COLIN ALLRED

REPRESENTING THE 32ND DISTRICT OF TEXAS

Dear Friend,

Today we honor and thank the many citizens who, over the years, supported the war effort through work and sacrifice on the home front. I am proud to join local 101-year-old World War II Veteran Major John "Lucky" Luckadoo to celebrate Home Front Heroes Day. And I am proud to be leading a bipartisan resolution in Congress to establish May 9 as Home Front Heroes Day.

During WWII, ordinary citizens made sacrifices at home, rationed goods, collected scrap metal and joined the workforce to contribute to the war effort. Inspired by their efforts, Major Luckadoo sought out to designate a national holiday to acknowledge those who did their duty on the home front.

I'm so inspired by Major Luckadoo's story. The patriotic spirit of those on the World War II home front lives on in the military spouses, families and individuals who make countless sacrifices to support the men and women who serve our country today.

I will continue to work with both parties to pass legislation that supports our troops, expands care and opportunities for veterans, and improves the quality of life for all North Texans.

Sincerely,

Colin Allred
Member of Congress
