

Dallas

WOMEN POSE FOR CALENDAR TO PROVE LIFE GETS BETTER WITH AGE

Pin-up calendars of the past were the inspiration for Timeless Beauties

By Deborah Ferguson • Published October 10, 2025 • Updated on October 10, 2025 at 11:10 am

A group of bold and spirited women at Presbyterian North Village in Dallas took a cue from pin-up calendars of the past to create Timeless Beauties.

Calendars for 2026 are popping up online and in stores.

An eye-popping calendar now on sale in North Texas celebrates confidence, community, and the women willing to bare just enough for a cause that matters.

A group of bold and spirited women at Presbyterian North Village in Dallas took a cue from pin-up calendars of the past to create Timeless Beauties. They debuted the calendar at their residential living center to rave reviews.

"I think it's beautiful and really shows us off well," said one woman.

"I think it's fantastic," said a man as he flipped through the pages. "Look at this picture. Yeah."

Profits from sales of the \$20 calendar benefit the Forefront Living Foundation (FLF), supporting Faith Presbyterian Hospice, the T. Boone Pickens Hospice Center, and the Forefront Living family of senior living communities, including PVN in Dallas, The Outlook at Windhaven in Plano, St. Joseph Village in Coppell, and Bella Vida, now under construction in San Antonio.

The spunky women who are in their 60s to 80s also wanted to prove that life doesn't slow down with age; it gets better! Watch video.

